

Deferred Articles.

Public Lands.—There is an article in the "Standard," upon this subject, which requires notice. We would, if we could, believe that the gross misrepresentations which are therein contained, proceeded from the ignorance of the writer of the paragraph. But we cannot possibly suppose that he did not know what were the propositions affirmed in the resolutions of the Commons. What, then, must the public think of his candour, we had almost said of his honesty, when he insinuates that Mr. Clingman's resolutions surrendered 15 per cent. of the claims of North Carolina to the proceeds of the public domain? The Editor says that he has the authority of the National Intelligencer for saying that the resolutions were a mere echo of Mr. Clay's Land Bill. He had higher authority, no less than the resolutions themselves, in his possession, that they were not, in that particular at least, a mere echo of Mr. Clay's Bill. We challenge the Editor to publish the resolutions of the House of Commons, and he will furnish his own readers with the materials to convict him of the grossest misrepresentation.—Raleigh Star.

The Richmond Enquirer.—Our neighbor still prates of the dangers of an election by the House—an argument in which he himself has little faith, if we may judge by his incessant iteration of it. Modest man! Modest gentlemen of the Rucker Convention! To insist that Judge White should not be voted for, nor General Harrison, nor any other individual but Mr. Van Buren, because forsooth, it may defeat an election by the People! Extravagantly modest men, to require that their dictation of a President be implicitly received! Why not a little practice as well as so much patriotic profession? Why not withdraw their "spoils" candidate, and let the true Republican candidate, Judge White, be elected? "Circumstances, quod the ingenious Editor of the Enquirer, alters cases!" With him, they alter not merely cases, but principles likewise. In 1824, this sturdy advocate of an election by the People, adhered to Mr. Crawford, when he knew he could barely get votes enough to carry him to the House! He did by no means stop here. When Mr. Crawford reached the House, behind Mr. Adams and General Jackson, he still urged his election by that body! The House elected Mr. Adams, and what then? Why, this pink of consistency, who was so strenuous for electing Mr. Crawford, who was behind Mr. Adams, was most noisy indeed in alleging corruption again. Mr. Clay and the House, because Gen. Jackson was not elected instead of Mr. Adams!!!—Richmond Whig.

The Missouri Monarch.—We perceive that the speech of Mr. Benton, the Baron Munchausen of the Senate, is going the rounds of the Van Buren papers, uncut, and which he was forced to confess and retract on the floor of the Senate. Senator Porter, of Louisiana, then remarked that the he would be heralded abroad, notwithstanding its exposure and retraction, and that the confession of the falsehood, though openly made by Mr. Benton, would never be heard of by those who get their information from the Globe and its copyists. His prediction is being fulfilled.—Lynchburg Virginian.

The well bred Young Horse WHIP.

THE Subscriber informs the citizens of Mecklenburg County, that he has purchased of Wm. S. Norment, the beautiful young horse Whip, and has made arrangements to stand him at the following places, viz: Mondays at Gilbreth McKnight, Esq., 12 miles north of Charlotte; Tuesdays at my own stable; Wednesdays and Thursdays in Charlotte; and Friday and Saturdays at Dr. Smith's, in the edge of Providence Settlement; and will be let out on the most liberal terms. (See handbills.) In recommending this horse, I would only refer to men who have reared colts from him, and in viewing his colts, which is certainly the best certificate he could offer, I would be willing to risk his reputation as a foalgetter; and from the very fine ancestry of which he has sprung, I hope the enterprising citizens of Mecklenburg will avail themselves of the present opportunity offered. Judges, view him and pass sentence.

The much admired and Celebrated Horse RATLER.

WILL COMMENCE his stand, the ensuing spring Season, at the stable of the Proprietor, two miles from Mount Mourne Post Office, on the main road leading from Charlotte to Statesville, and will be regularly at his stand, (public days excepted,) until the 14th of June, when the Season will expire. Ratler will be let to Mares at the following low prices, viz: Fifteen Dollars will be charged for the Season; Eight Dollars for the single visit, the cash paid at the time of service; and Twenty Dollars to ensure Parting with the Mare for the insurance.

DESCRIPTION.—Ratler is a beautiful chestnut horse, six years old this Spring, with a small star in his forehead, near hind foot white, and nearly fifteen hands high, uniting in a high degree the grandeur and elegance of his sire, the distinguished Horse Barber, with the great substance, power and compactness of his grand-sire, the imported Horse Dion. His head and eyes are very fine, neck of good length, rising from the shoulder and joining the head exceedingly well; shoulder very oblique, capacious and strong, arm clean and muscular; back from the point of the shoulder to the loin short, and very powerful, and from the great approximation of his hip and shoulder, he has great reach; loin wide enough and very strong; thigh long, muscular, clean, and strong; hock large, and pre-eminently well formed; his flinty legs sound, of moderate size, thin, flat, and sinewy; he stands well in his pasterns, his feet are of the best description, sufficient in size, and of smooth tough horn. His body is round and well proportioned and plump. His bone is remarkably fine—the backbone defying competition; his muscle is very clean, well defined and tendinous. Ratler is a handsome horse, his erect noble carriage, his mild countenance, lightened up by the steady brilliant lustre of his clear full eyes, commands the admiration of all that view him.

PEDIGREE.—No horse can boast of a richer pedigree or more illustrious ancestry. RATLER was got by the capital racer and stallion Barber, and best son of the imported horse Dion, the best racer and stallion of his day, and best son of Spadilla, the best racer and stallion of his day, and best son of the English horse Highflyer, founder of the best stock in England in his day, and best racer since the days of Childeur—his dam Faith, by Pacolet. RATLER'S dam was got by the incomparable Sir Archy, begotten by Diomed, the best stallion ever imported into this country.—Ratler may safely stop at this cross as an impregnable position, though it could be extended much farther; but it would take up too much room to do so, and besides the crosses it embraces is too well known to require elucidation. Nothing can be better than Ratler's pedigree on the maternal line; every cross is first rate for blood and performance. It is equally good on the side of his sire and dam. Through them he is immediately allied to the best Horses which have flourished in England or America up to the present time. No horse can offer a more desirable cross than Ratler—having in his veins the blood of such horses as Barber, Sir Archy, Dion, Diomed, Spadilla, Highflyer, and Pacolet. From this it may be seen that Ratler is of the purest lineage, and equal in blood to any horse, native or imported.

RATLER has been trained to the turf, and has exhibited astonishing speed and bottom. He has contended with horses of fine speed on the turf for the purse, from one mile and repeat, to three mile heats; and has always proved winner with great ease, and from the incontestable evidence this beautiful little animal has given of his speed against time, he may justly be considered the American Childers, a prodigy of speed.

RATLER'S colts are highly promising, being of fine form and size, and very generally resembling their sire in figure and gait. Great care will be taken to give general satisfaction, but no liability for accidents. Grain will be furnished to mares sent from a distance at the market price. Care and attention to grooming, feeding, and watering, without charge. S. B. WALLS.

Mount Mourne, Irrell Co., N. C.

Admiral Nelson,

Will stand the Spring season, at the stable of the subscriber, and be let to Mares at the following rates, $4 the single leap; $8 the season; and $10 to ensure. Nelson, sired by a horse of the same name, is a beautiful red sorrel, 5 years old this spring, of great muscle, sinew, and bone, and of great symmetry, full 15 hands 14 inches high, and of a form indicating great power and action. His dam by Wild Medley. He has been trained to the turf, and gave assurance of fine speed and bottom. He has been winner of a purse two mile heats, beating his two competitors with great ease. February 15, 1836. S. B. WALLS.

DYSPEPSIA

LIVER COMPLAINTS.

THE PATENT VEGETABLE MEDICINE STOMACHIC ET HEPATICE, formed by chymical analysis and synthesis of several proximate vegetable principles, are universally acknowledged to have totally eclipsed the pretensions of every other remedy, and superseded the necessity of every other mode of treatment wherever the above diseases are found to exist, as well as in enlargement of the Spleen and in Jaundice.

Among the symptoms of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, are flatulency, sourness or burning in the stomach, melancholy, irritability, disagreeable taste in the mouth; great irregularity of appetite, which is sometimes voracious, and at other times greatly deficient; thirst, fetid breath, nausea, weakness of the stomach, acid eructations, palpitation, drowsiness, irregularity of the bowels, pressure on the stomach after meals, pain in the head, dizziness or vertigo, confusion of mind, attended with loss of memory, a gnawing in the stomach when empty, chilliness, affection of sight and hearing, pain and weakness in the back, languor, disturbed sleep, cold feet and hands, tremor, uneasiness in the throat, cough, pain in the side or breast, &c.

DR. PETERS' Vegetable Anti-Bilious Pills.

Are the cheapest and most approved Family Medicine ever offered to the Public. They are extremely mild in their operation, neither causing sickness of the stomach, nor any unpleasant sensation in the system, as is too frequently the result from medicines given to act upon the bowels. They act specifically upon the Liver, when in a torpid condition, carrying off a large quantity of bile, through the influence of the excretory function, which, if suffered to remain in the system, would produce either Jaundice, Liver Complaint, Bilious Fever, Fever and Ague, or some other grievous bodily affliction. In all cases of torpor of the bowels, they act like a charm. In recent cases of Dyspepsia, they are a certain cure. Many persons who were subject to violent attacks of sick head-ache, have been much benefited, and several perfectly cured in a few weeks by their use. They are highly recommended as a preventative and cure of Bilious complaints. Persons who are subject to that distressing complaint, sea-sickness, by taking a portion or two of them a few days previous to embarking on board the vessel, will be almost certain to escape it. Females can use them at all periods, without incurring any risk. Their virtues will remain unimpaired for years in any climate. No family should be without these Pills; a portion of them, taken occasionally, would be the means of preventing much suffering from sickness. It is from neglect of keeping up a regular peristaltic action of the stomach and bowels, thus suffering to be absorbed and mingled with the blood, unassimilated fluids, that most diseases are produced.

Dr. P. feels confident that no person who gives these Pills a fair trial, will ever after feel willing to be without them. The testimony of thousands speaking in the highest terms of their efficacy, might be added, but the very high reputation Dr. P. has acquired as the inventor of the "Patent Vegetable Medicine Stomachic et Hepaticæ," for the cure of Dyspepsia and Liver complaints, is thought a sufficient guarantee to those wishing to make a trial of their virtues. They contain not a particle of Mercury, or any ingredient that does not act in harmony with health and oppose disease.

Dr. P. having been educated under the most eminent American and European Medical professors, and practiced his profession many years in the South, where diseases of the most obstinate character prevail, considers himself well qualified to judge on the nature of diseases incident to warm climates.

Prepared by JOSEPH PRIESTLY PETERS, M. D. P. B. C. P. M. at his Institution for the cure of obstinate Diseases, by means of vegetable remedies, No. 129 Liberty-street, New York, inventor and sole proprietor. Each box contains forty Pills. Price 50 CENTS.

These invaluable Medicines are sold in Charlotte by Smith & Williams; in Concord by P. B. Barringer, and in Salisbury by John Murphy, where numerous certificates of their efficacy can be seen.
